To reserve your space, a payment in the amount of $165.00 will be due upfront at time of booking. Should you decided to cancel, a refund may be issued excluding a $50 booking fee. This $50 booking fee will be non-refundable due to administrative costs and labor. Purchased upgrades must be paid for at time of booking. To request an upgrade after your contract has been submitted, an email must be sent to info@mega-gym.com to confirm availability. Please note that if upgrades are not purchased at time of booking, we cannot guarantee availability at a later date. Final counts are required 3 days before your reserved date for staffing and set-up purposes. The first 10 children (all ages up to 17 years) are included in the Birthday Party Package; however, there will be a $10.00 charge per additional child due at the end of the party. This includes ALL children that participate in the first hour of activities with our designated party host. If a child is attending the party, but is not participating in the activities that our party host is providing, there will NOT be a $10 charge for them; but they must remain in our parent-viewing area or in the birthday party room. To ensure the safety of everyone attending, at no time will parents be allowed on any equipment. To ensure the following party is able to begin promptly, there will be a $25.00 charge for every 15-minute increment that your party runs late upon exiting. It is imperative that we remain on schedule to ensure fairness to all who have reserved a birthday party with us.

If you have read and agree to all of the above conditions, please sign and submit your contract to our front office.
